NOTES FROM YOUR EDITOR

In 1975, if we were successful in assisting you in your genealogical searching, it was because of the generous sharing of fellow members of our Society.

Our staff and contributors are composed entirely of volunteers. However, we do try to maintain a consistent effort to provide information which will be both helpful and interesting for our members.

We do need your continued sharing of helpful information. We still do not have a back-log of Family Bible records. We would like to use old letters which mirror the times of the writer. Obituaries from old newspapers would be helpful. These may sometimes be found in old scrapbooks. If you have information of this type which has not been published, we would appreciate your allowing us to publish it in FAMILY FINDINGS.

For those of you who have submitted material which has not yet been published, we ask your indulgence. Sometimes it does not "fit" a certain issue or perhaps the copy is difficult to read and hence too time consuming for volunteers to type. Or perhaps it involves additional correspondence which is also a hindrance because of lack of time. We do appreciate your willingness to be helpful, nevertheless, and hope to use the material in the future.

Our Society meets at the Jackson-Madison County Library, 433 E. Lafayette St., in Jackson, Tennessee at 7 PM on the second Thursday in each month. We have some interesting programs planned for 1976 and hope that you will be able to attend some of the meetings. We also plan to hold a beginners workshop in the early Spring. We have had numerous requests for this service. This will probably be held on a Saturday. It will be open to the public, but our members will be notified directly.

We are especially proud of our publication recently of "Riverside Cemetery Inscriptions." This contains 130 pages of tombstone inscriptions from Jackson's oldest cemetery. If you had ancestors living in Jackson, especially during the middle and late nineteenth century or early in this century, you will want a copy. Burials are still held at the cemetery, but are rare now because the last of the plots were sold years ago. The publication is arranged by sections according to the cemetery layout, but is completely indexed. Cost is $6.00 postpaid. To order, send check to Mid-West Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 3343, Jackson, Tn. 38301 or call Mrs. James Phillips, 901-422-6494.

This is a letter that is in the possession of Mr. Fonville Neville, Denmark, Tn. Copied from the original by Charles D. Fonville.

Mr. John F. Fonville

I received your welcome and very interesting letter of the 18th of April during my stay in Kinston, and would have replied since my return home at an earlier period than this, had I not been so closely engaged in attending to the household affairs, whilst Ma superintended and assisted as usual in the cultivation of the garden and farm. I had a very pleasant visit at Kinston, I enjoyed myself much better than I expected, saw a great many of my acquaintances and friends and among them was a school mate of mine and my darling Sister's, she had a type of Lissies which she gave me back, I insisted so much on taking it she finally consented but I promised at sometime to send her a copy of it together with one of mine. I also visited Newberne. Tollie? Wood, Sarah Jane Wood (formely Mills) and Mr. Fife went down on the train with me. I remained with cousin Harriet Koonce most of the time, she keeps a boarding house near the Depot but she did not charge me a cent. she was very kind indeed, and invited me to go down to Newvern and spend sometime with her. I saw Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, Mr. Mills, Mr. Ellis, Mrs. Stringham, Sam? Windboy?, and many others of your acquaintance they inquired about you, and I informed them that you were then at Mebaneville. I could have enjoyed my visit at Newbern so much, but seeing so many of my acquaintances and associates of my dear darling Sister whose lovely form now lies cold in death, it seemed as if my heart would break knowing that I could see her no more on earth, but I have one consolation I believe her savert? spirit is now resting in Heaven so fair and bright. Redeemed and washed by Jesus, In a robe of spotless white. Mrs Laura Hughes wife of Dr. James Hughes of Newberne is dead, I saw her death announcement in the Journal this week. Bryant requested me to write only one page to you as we have only one sheet of paper, and he wishes to write to you on this side. The family's desire to be remembered affectionately to you, write often as you can, we will be glad to hear from you at any time.

Very Respectfully, H. E. Koonce

Dear Brother

As Sister has just finished writing to you I will answer your letter which was received sometime ago, we are all well, and I hope this may find you well and doing well, although you are many miles from us. brother Frank received a short letter from you this week, he and Ma? will write to you before long. It is very dull here now, the people generally are quite buisy attending to their farms. brother Frank is making a farm again this year. He has given out building I believe, he talks about buying Mrs. Burrus lot, as it cost so much to build now. I continue to go to school to Jacob Giles, I think this session will close sometime in July. I hope you are well plessed with Tennessee, and that you will make a plenty of money there. I will close as there is no news of interest to write. let us hear from you often. All join me in love to you. accept much love from me. Your affectionate brother

B. T. Koonce

BOUNDARIES

In the past Private Acts were used to transfer individual parcels of land situated on County lines from one county to the other for various reasons of the landowners. A list of those acts which affected Madison County follows:

1. Private Acts of 1903, Chapter 183 changed the boundary line between Madison and Henderson Counties to include the farm of C. N. Matlock in Madison County.
2. Private Acts of 1907, Chapter 570 changed the boundary lines between Madison and Hardeman Counties to include the land of Robert B. Swint in Madison County.
3. Private Acts of 1911, Chapter 97 changed the Madison County-Crockett County line to place the land owned by Robert B. Griggs in Crockett County.
4. Private Acts of 1921, Chapter 796, placed land of R. H. Simpson in Madison County from Gibson County. (Repealed by Private Acts of 1937, Chapter 740 which changed the boundary line to return Simpson's land to Crockett County.)
5. Private Acts of 1921, Chapter 848, placed certain lands of R. T. Lewis in Gibson County, other lands of R. T. Lewis in Madison County, in an attempt to "straighten the line" between Madison and Gibson Counties.
6. Private Acts of 1931, Chapter 726, changed boundary lines so as to remove certain property from Hardeman County into the First Civil District of Madison County. (Repealed by Private Acts of 1957, Chapter 152.

Our thanks to Mr. Robert Nolen of Jackson, Tn. for making this and other Boundary information on West Tennessee available to readers of Family Findings.

TO OBTAIN U.S. MILITARY RECORDS

(We are indebted to Mrs. C. C. James of our Society for compiling this information which she shared with us at the December 1975 meeting.)

First, write to:

National Archives and Records Service
General Services Administration
Washington, D. C. 20408

Tell them you want copies of order form G.S.A. 6751. This is the order form for ordering photocopies of veterans records from the Revolution to the Spanish-American War.

Write to: United States Superintendent of Documents
United States Government Printing Office
Washington, D. C. 20402

To obtain:

"Guide to Federal Archives Relating To The Civil War, 1962" by Kenneth W. Munden and Henry P. Beers
National Archives Publication No. 63-1

"Guide to the Archives of the Government of the Confederate States of America" by Henry P. Beers
National Archives Publication No. 68-15

"Guide to Genealogical Records in the National Archives" by M. B. Colket, Jr. and Frank E. Bridgers
National Archives Publication No. 64-8

G.S.A. 6751

If your ancestor served in more than one regiment, you must send a separate form for each. Military service in one organization is wholly separate from record of service in another.

U. S. Military Records, How to Obtain (continued)

If you have reason to believe your soldier had more than 10 pages especially if an officer, write across the top of the G.S.A. form, "send all military records".....a bill of $7 or $8 at most.

If you think he was ever court martialed, write across the top of another G.S.A. 6751, "Please send all court-martial records."

If you think, or pension or military records show, your soldier was sick, disabled, or wounded, reach for another G.S.A. 6751 and write across the top, "Please send complete Medical Records."

Using the G.S.A. 6751 for a Union Soldier, you may expect pension, military, medical and court martial records.

For the Confederate Soldier, as a general rule, military records only. These may include muster rolls, leaves, prisoner of war records, and a few miscellaneous records. You will have to turn to individual state archives for more information.

If tracing earlier soldiers who were in militia units of the War of 1812 and during the Indian Wars (if their units were not officially taken into the Army), their records will be found in state files only. Revolutionary War soldiers are the exception. All available records of soldiers, sailors, and marines of Washington's troops and ships can be found in the National Archives.

If you want information on either Confederate or Union Soldiers from Tennessee, write:

Director, Archives and Records Management
Tennessee State Library and Archives
